26th Sandbanks Weekend-September 2019

Yet another successful weekend at Sandbanks. As you can see from the photographs, everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Once again, the senior ranks took full advantage of their opportunities to show off their musical skills to entertain their adoring public. Rick Morris did a great job of organising the weekend and led the evenings like a professional. The weather was kind to us, enabling groups to visit local areas of interest, such as Brownsea Island, Corfe Castle, Poole and Bournemouth. £625 was raised in the raffle, which was donated to the PGM's Discretionary Fund. Some Brethren travelled earlier to the venue and made use of the Thursday evening and others stayed on the Sunday evening to maximise their welcomed break. Brethren who have not taken up the option of this 'away weekend', will have another opportunity next year. Highly recommended.
